The duo lands its fourth No. 1. Since its first in December 2006, only Brad Paisley (six), Carrie Underwood and Kenny Chesney (five each) have more No. 1s.

Up 6.9 million impressions, the collaboration earns Greatest Gainer applause. The song draws 29 million audience impressions during the tracking week.

This duet is Chesney's 34th top 10 and his 26th since 2000, the most top 10s of any artist since the dawn of the decade. Tim McGraw is in the runner-up slot with 24.

Thanks to a post-holiday clearance sale at Target, this "Dancing With the Stars" champ cooks the Greatest Gainer nod with the only gain on this issue's chart (up 4,000 units) while leaping 82-24 on the Billboard 200 (25,000 sold).

Since the chart reflects expected declines after the holidays, newcomer Houser's set shows the smallest percentage dip (36%) and an improvement in rank (56-38, 3,000 copies).

The song is the first male duet to top the chart since Kenny Chesney & Uncle Kracker led for five weeks in April-May 2004. It is the 13th No. 1 for Paisley and the ninth for Urban.

Up 2.8 million impressions, the lead single from "Startin' Fires" (No. 16 on Top Country Albums) takes the Greatest Gainer in its 23rd chart week.

The second track from "That Don't Make Me a Bad Guy" is Keith's 36th top 10. The lead single, "She Never Cried," capped the Nov. 1 chart.

The singer matches George Strait for the most No. 1s in the Nielsen BDS era. Each of Jackson's 25 leaders happened after the chart's conversion to BDS data in January 1990. Strait inked his 25th BDS No. 1 when "I Saw God Today" reigned last April. He's the all-time leader with 43 No. 1s dating to 1982.

Brooks & Dunn's 41st top 10 breaks a tie with Alabama for the duo or group with the most top 10s in the Nielsen BDS era. For McBride, the new top 10 makes her the all-time top 10 queen on this list (see Hot Box, page 37).

Jan. 11-12 rerun of GAC's "Origins" special, which first aired in May, helps Lambert earn Greatest Gainer (up 1,000). She is slated to tour with Kenny Chesney this year.

Bentley's hits set, which takes the Pacesetter trophy with a 30% spike, benefits from promotion of an upcoming GAC special, which premieres Jan. 29.

With 1,000 copies sold, a tribute to progressive country artist Robert Earl Keen takes the Hot Shot Debut at No. 66. The chart runs to 75 positions on billboard.biz.

The singer's fifth No. 1 also marks his first set of two straight leaders. It follows "Home," which reigned last July, making Shelton the 11th solo male with at least two consecutive No. 1 songs this decade.

George Strait's 80th career top 10 ups his record total to 55 in the Nielsen BDS era (which began in January 1990). Alan Jackson is second during that time with 49.

The trio lands its second-highest career bow with the lead single from its sixth studio set, "Unstoppable," due April 7.

The sixth track from "Let It Go" crosses the Airpower threshold, and at seven chart weeks it's the youngest title inside the top 20. McGraw also posted six top 20 tracks from his 1997 set "Everywhere."

Following its Hot Shot Debut last issue, the trio takes the Greatest Gainer spotlight (up 3.9 million impressions) with the lead single from its forthcoming "Unstoppable" album.

34 The label discontinues its push on "Another You" (No. 49) after hastily recording a studio version of this typically themed track.

Bentley lands his sixth career chart-topper, his first in more than a year. "Fire" is the lead single from his fourth studio album, which opens at No. 1 on Top Country Albums (71,000 copies). The set is his third to top the Country list and marks his fourth straight top 10 on the Billboard 200 (No. 3).

The second single from Rucker's "Learn to Live" set (No. 4 on Top Country Albums) is his second country top 10 (up 2.8 million impressions). The lead track "Don't Think I Don't Think About It" led for two weeks in October.

Chesney's 16th career leader is his 13th since 2000. Toby Keith leads in the '00s with 14 No. 1s, while Brad Paisley and Tim McGraw tie for third with 12 apiece.

Owen's second top 10 reaches that level in its 27th chart week. He took a 36-week ride to his first top 10, "Startin' With Me," in July 2007.

Up 3.5 million audience impressions, the topical theme takes the Greatest Gainer in its third chart week.

The album notches double Greatest Gainer nods on the country list and the Billboard 200. The Grammy Awards fuel its return to its previous best ranks, achieved when the set bowed at No. 2 on both charts with 112,000 copies in November 2007 (see Over the Counter, page 37).

A Grammy for best country album lifts the set 130% and gives it its first top 10 rank since the Nov. 29 issue. The current single, "River of Love," is No. 7 on Hot Country Songs.

She already has the most weeks at No. 1 on the Billboard 200 by a female country artist. Her 10th week atop that list is the most overall since Santana's "Supernatural" ruled for 12 weeks in 1999-2000.

The former Lonestar frontman, who garnered a country album of the year nomination for the April 25 Gospel Music Assn. Dove Awards, earns the Pacesetter nod with 5% spike. Chart runs at 75 positions on Billboard.biz.

The singer's 10th chart-topper is his first solo No. 1 since "You Look Good in My Shirt" last August. He led in January with Brad Paisley on the duet "Start a Band."

The Hot Shot Debut is the singer's highest bow, topping his No. 42 start with "Long Trip Alone" in December '06.

The teen star bows with airplay from 34 monitored stations as dad Billy Ray checks in at No. 59 with "Back to Tennessee" (viewable at billboard.biz/charts). The pair charted last year on the No. 1 hit "Ready, Set, Don't Go."

Rucker's second country single rises 3-2 as his labelmate Keith Urban holds at No. 1. Capitol Nashville's last such double placement atop the chart was actually a triple (June 4, 2005): Urban's "Making Memories of Us" (No. 1), Trace Adkins' "Songs About Me" (No. 2) and Dierks Bentley's "Lot of Leavin' Left to Do" (No. 3).

Atkins' sixth top 10 is his first since "Cleaning This Gun" spent two weeks atop the chart in February 2008. "Gun" was Atkins' fourth consecutive No. 1, preceded by "These Are My People," "Watching You" (both in 2007) and "If You're Going Through Hell" (2006).

The fourth single from Jackson's "Good Time" album is the highly emotional ballad "Sissy's Song," No. 26 on Hot Country Songs (6 million impressions). His album gets the only bullet inside the top 20, up 3% (7,000 copies).

A concert trek pushes Stacey's debut album back onto the list for the first time since last July. The "American Idol" season-six finalist kicks off the American Stars: Spring Break tour with fellow "Idol" alumni Melinda Doolittle, Chikieze and Gina Glockens March 14 in Fort Pierce, Fla.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS RUCKER RULES

Darius Rucker shifts 2-1 on Hot Country Songs with "It Won't Be Like This for Long." He's the first male artist to log No. 1s with his first pair of format singles since Clay Walker did it 15 years ago. He previously led with "Don't Think I Don't Think About It" for two weeks in October. In the past 20 years, the only other acts to accomplish the feat are Clint Black, Brooks & Dunn, Deana Carter, Faith Hill, Jamie O'Neal and Wynonna. Rucker and Wynonna are distinguished on the list as part of previously established acts Hootie & the Blowfish and the Judds, respectively. —Wade Jensen

BETWEEN THE BULLETS AND 'THEN' THERE'S . . .

Brad Paisley claims the year's best Hot Country Songs debut as "Then" arrives at No. 26. His prior best bow was a No. 31 entry with "Start a Band," with Keith Urban, last September.

With 6.6 million audience impressions, "Then" makes the biggest debut since "Love Story" opened with 8.1 million impressions on No. 25 the same week "Band" debuted. So far in 2009, Paisley's arrival tops a pair of No. 29 starts, set when Rascal Flatts' "Here Comes Goodbye" opened on the Jan. 30 chart, matched last issue by Urban's "Kiss a Girl" (29-20).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS GOOD GOLLY, DOLLY

Dolly Parton's "Backwoods Barbie" re-enters Top Country Albums at No. 9 and the Billboard 200 at No. 40 (12,000; up 3,200%), thanks to this issue's introduction of point-of-sale data from Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores, where a special exclusive edition of the album started scanning March 24. Also on Top Country Albums, Martina McBride's "Shine" pops on at the summit (40,000 copies) and opens at No. 10 on the Billboard 200. McBride's ninth set of new nonseasonal material is her fourth No. 1 bow on the country chart and her fifth top 10 debut on the big chart.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS

OH, BROTHERS!

The six-time International Bluegrass Music Award winners Dailey & Vincent claim a second chart-topper and their first No. 1 debut on Top Bluegrass Albums, as "Brothers From Different Mothers" bows with 2,000 copies, the duo's biggest one-week sum. The pair's self-titled debut set opened at No. 2 on the Feb. 16, 2008, chart and peaked atop the June 21, 2008, list. "Brothers" also bows at No. 44 on Top Country Albums, where Keith Urban's "Defying Gravity" opens at No. 1 (see Over the Counter, page 37) and Rodney Atkins pops on at No. 3 with "It's America" (34,000 copies). —Wade Jensen

THE WINNERS ARE . . .

44th ACADEMY OF COUNTRY MUSIC AWARDS
SUN. APRIL 5 8 ET/PT

This week features a pair of hefty starts at No. 1 and No. 2 by Rascal Flatts ("Unstoppable," 359,000) and Jason Aldean ("Wide Open," 109,000), and the April 5 Academy of Country Music (ACM) Awards nearly doubles volume on Top Country Albums over the prior week. (See Rascal Flatts, Happening Now, page 39). Reported to have reached a 10-year high in viewers, the CBS telecast helps Greatest Gainer Taylor Swift's "Fearless" spike 40,000 (up 98%), and Pacesetter Kellie Pickler's self-titled set swells 174% (6,000 copies). Entertainer of the year and female vocalist winner Carrie Underwood's "Carnival Ride" gains 98%.

BEETWEEN THE BULLETS

UNDER THE COVERS

The folk-rock act John Doe & The Sadies nab the Hot Shot Debut on Top Country Albums, as "Country Club" eases in with 2,000 copies at No. 39. All but four of the album's 15 tracks are respectful treatments of venerated hill-billy standards, including Johnny Cash's "I Still Miss Someone," Roger Miller's "Husbands and Wives" and Willie Nelson's "Night Life." Although this is the group's first country chart entry, Doe has appeared in the country-themed movies "Pure Country" (1992) and "Get to the Heart: The Barbara Mandrell Story" (1997).

The duo's 15th career top 10 is its ninth straight this decade. That's the most by any duo in the '00s, besting eight in a row by Brooks & Dunn (2003-06), and the longest overall streak by a duo since Brooks & Dunn had 17 straight top 10s from 1991 to 1996.

The singer lands his 35th top 10 single in just five chart weeks. In the current decade, Chesney has placed a format-leading 27 top 10s, ahead of the totals by Tim McGraw (25), Toby Keith (23), Brad Paisley (21) and Rascal Flatts (21).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'MONTANA' MOVES IN

The soundtrack to "Hannah Montana: The Movie" makes a delayed entrance onto the Top Country Albums chart, climbing in at No. 1 five weeks after its release. It's not entirely unusual that an album will crack a genre-specific chart after its initial release, as a title's content is always subject for review. In this case, about half of the album's tracks are stylistically appropriate for the country genre and therefore meet the minimum requirements to chart. The set also sports current Hot Country Songs hits from Miley Cyrus (No. 33) and her dad Billy Ray (No. 48).

The singer's second No. 1 is his first in three years, the longest span between chart-toppers since Garth Brooks went nine years between "To Make You Feel My Love" (1998) and "More Than a Memory" (2007). Aldean's first leader, "Why," topped the May 27, 2006, chart.

Bentley's 11th career top 10 is also his 10th consecutive one. Since his chart debut six years ago, only "My Last Name" stopped short of the top 10, peaking at No. 17 in April 2004. His prior single, "Feel That Fire," became his sixth No. 1 in February.

SWIFT STILL SIZZLES

Up 12,000 copies, Taylor Swift's "Fearless" (No. 3) nabs the Greatest Gainer on Top Country Albums (41,000 copies sold), as her label solicited Country's Day airplay on country stations for the album track "The Best Day," which impacts Hot Country Songs at No. 56 (viewable at billboard.biz/charts). Her new single "You Belong With Me" has claimed the chart's biggest gain in each of its four weeks, up more than 3 million impressions this issue (18-17). An appearance on "The Oprah Winfrey Show" (May 18) will elevate "Fearless" and Swift's self-titled debut set.

The second single from "The Foundation" (No. 4 on Top Country Albums) is the group's second top 10. Lead single "Chicken Fried" spent two weeks at No. 1 in December.

After just missing the upper tier with its last single, "Lookin' for a Good Time" (No. 11), the trio lands its second top 10 from its self-titled set. The lead single, "Love Don't Live Here," peaked at No. 3 last June.

EARLE'S BIG 'TOWNES'

Country rock kingpin Steve Earle's fifth top 10 start is also his second straight one on Top Country Albums, as "Townes" opens with 18,000 copies at No. 6 (and a career-high No. 19 on the Billboard 200).

The tribute to late songwriter Townes Van Zandt follows Earle's No. 10 Country start with 2007's "Washington Square Serenade." His other top 10 country debuts include 2002's "Jerusalem" and "Sidetracks," and 2000's "Transcendental Blues." Earle's tribute includes Van Zandt's "Pancho and Lefty," covered most notably by Emmylou Harris (1977) and Willie Nelson & Merle Haggard (1983).

The singer's 14th leader is his 10th consecutive No. 1. He's the first act in the chart's history and first since George Strait (11 titles, 1986-89) to string that many together. Others in that rare camp are Alabama (21), Sonny James (16) and Ronnie Milsap (10). For more, read Chart Beat at billboard.com/chartbeat.

The single is Jackson's 50th top 10 (including duets and featured billing), a level he first reached in April 1990. Since that time, only George Strait has logged more top 10s (54).

KENNY'S GOT 'HITS'

With 89,000 copies sold, Kenny Chesney's "Greatest Hits II" bows atop Top Country Albums and at No. 3 on the Billboard 200. It features the single, "Out Last Night" (No. 4 on Hot Country Songs), which hasn't been released digitally, and label sources say there aren't plans to do so. Elsewhere on Country Albums, a performance on the "American Idol" season finale lifts Keith Urban's "Defying Gravity" by 3,000 copies to become the Greatest Gainer (No. 7). The show also featured Steve Martin, pushing his indie release "The Crow" (now handled by Rounder) back atop Top Bluegrass Albums. —Wade Jessen

Swift scores her eighth top 10 two-and-a-half years after her debut single, "Tim McGraw," first reached the region. She's the fastest among solo females to accumulate that many top 10s to start a career since Wynonna stacked eight in 1992-93.

As promotion duties for the track shift to Warner Bros. Nashville, the rookie group becomes the third act to crack the top 20 for the first time in 2009, following the Eli Young Band and John Rich.

GENTRY RETURNS

One week after being invited to join the cast of the venerable Grand Ole Opry, Montgomery Gentry snares the Hot Shot Debut at No. 5 on Top Country Albums with "For Our Heroes" (29,000). Sold exclusively through Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores, the quasi-greatest-hits set enters the Billboard 200 at No. 11.

Meanwhile, George Strait's "Troubadour" earns Greatest Gainer honors (up 10,000 copies) on the Country chart (No. 10) following the Academy of Country Music's May 27 CBS TV special celebrating the singer.

BINGHAM'S 'SUN' RISE

Progressive country band Ryan Bingham & the Dead Horses' "Roadhouse Sun" debuts at No. 17 on Top Country Albums. The new set follows the band's first two releases, "Dead Horses" (2006) and "Mescalito" (2007), neither of which appeared on the Country chart. According to Nielsen BDS, radio play for the lead single, "Country Roads," has mainly come from Texas stations, such as KPLX Dallas, KVET Austin and KRYS Corpus Christi. Sharply discounted by at least one leading digital retailer during the tracking week, the album's digital sales account for 46% of its total (8,000). —Wade Jensen

CHRISTIAN 'ROCK'

Chart veteran Tracy Lawrence debuts at No. 20 on Top Country Albums with "The Rock" (5,000 copies), his first Christian-themed set. It also starts at No. 4 on Top Christian Albums. Lawrence is the second country artist this year to debut on the Christian chart, following Ronnie Milsap's March bow with "Then Sings My Soul." Other country artists who have charted on the Christian tally include Cristy Lane, Charlie Daniels, Randy Travis, Johnny Cash and Hank Williams. The lead single from Lawrence's new set, "Up to Him," spends a fourth week on Hot Country Songs and bullets at No. 50.

'ROSE' BLOOMS

Scoring his first top 10 start with his first set of new songs in more than seven years and his biggest one-week sum in three years (22,000 copies), Hank Williams Jr. has the Hot Shot Debut at No. 7 on Top Country Albums with "127 Rose Avenue." It's his biggest Nielsen SoundScan week since "The Essential Collection" opened with 39,000 copies in July 2006. His most recent top 10 start with a studio album was "Almeria Club" (No. 9) in the Jan. 26, 2002, issue. The new album's lead single, "Red, White, & Pink-Slip Blues," spent four weeks on Hot Country Songs in April/May. —Wade Jensen

ROBISON RETURNS

Charlie Robison lands the Hot Shot Debut on Top Country Albums with his first set of new songs in five years, as "Beautiful Day" opens at No. 33 and debuts on the Heatseekers list at No. 25 (2,000 copies). The new set marks his fifth appearance and second-highest bow on the country chart, where he most recently appeared with "Good Times" in October 2004. His best start happened when "Step Right Up" moved 5,000 copies and bowed at No. 27 on the April 28, 2001, chart. The new collection is Robison's second outing for the independent Dualtone label, and he has concert dates booked through early October. —Wade Jessen

With 3.5 million impressions at 95 monitored signals, the lead single from McGraw's 10th studio album, "Southern Voice," is his highest bow in two years. The new set is slated for an autumn release.

It's the first time since the Sept. 27, 2008, issue that the chart has showcased a pair of top 40 debuts. Keith has opened in that range with seven other singles, the last being "High Maintenance Woman" (No. 37) February 2007.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS PAISLEY PREVAILS

"American Saturday Night," Brad Paisley's seventh set of new songs, arrives as his fifth No. 1 start on Top Country Albums and his second No. 2 bow on the Billboard 200. Opening with 130,000 copies, "Night" is Paisley's third-largest one-week total. He had two bigger weeks when "5th Gear" arrived in July 2007 (with 197,000 copies) and when "Time Well Wasted" bowed in September 2005 (193,000). On Hot Country Songs, the lead single "Then" is No. 5 after spending three weeks at the summit, while the follow-up "Welcome to the Future" surges 59-41 in its second chart week (2.6 million impressions). —Wade Jessen

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'RUN' TO NO. 1

With the longest climb to No. 1 in more than a year (26 weeks), Lady Antebellum lands its first chart-topper on Hot Country Songs, as "I Run to You" climbs 3-1. That's the longest trek since James Otto's "I Just Got Started Lovin' You" needed 29 weeks in May 2008. The trio peaked at No. 3 a year ago with its debut single, "Love Don't Live Here," and rose to No. 11 with "Lookin' for a Good Time" in December. So far this year, "Run" is the 19th title to lead the list, compared with 12 different chart-toppers during the same period last year (for more, see billboard.com/chartbeat).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS HEAVY ROTATION

The No. 1 chum continues on Hot Country Songs, as Billy Currington lands his third No. 1 with "People Are Crazy" (2-1), the 20th chart-topper of 2009. That's seven more than the same period last year and the most at this point in any year since the chart converted to Nielsen BDS data in 1990. Currington's first No. 1, "Must Be Doin' Somethin' Right," reigned for two weeks in December 2005; "Good Directions" spent three weeks at No. 1 in May/June 2007. That gap is the longest for any artist since Jason Aldean went three years between "Why" in May 2006 and "She's Country," which led the May 16 chart. —Wade Jensen

PICKLER'S 'BEST'

Fifth-season "American Idol" finalist Kellie Pickler's fifth single becomes her first top 10 on Hot Country Songs, as "Best Days of Your Life" steps 11-10 in its 37th week. That's the third-longest top 10 climb in the Nielsen BDS era (since January 1990). Josh Gracin's "We Weren't Crazy" (2008) and Gary Allan's "Right Where I Need to Be" (2001) both needed 40 weeks to reach the top 10, while Faith Hill's "Let's Make Love" (with Tim McGraw) cracked that part of the chart in 39 weeks in 2000. Previously, Pickler's highest chart perch was a No. 14 peak with "I Wonder" in August 2007. —Wade Jensen

RUCKER'S 'ALRIGHT'

As "Alright" steps 2-1 on Hot Country Songs, Darius Rucker becomes the first artist in nearly 17 years—and the fourth in the past 20 years—to top the chart consecutively with his first three format singles. That hasn't happened since Wynonna's first three solo songs went to No. 1 in 1992, preceded by Brooks & Dunn (also in 1992) and Clint Black (1990). In fact, Brooks & Dunn and Black led with their first four singles.

Rucker reigned for two weeks last fall with "Don't Think I Don't Think About It," then spent three weeks at No. 1 with "It Won't Be Like This for Long" in March and April.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS NO. 1 BY A HAIR

In one of the hottest No. 1 contests on Hot Country Songs since its shift from detections to audience-based rankings four years ago, Taylor Swift's "You Belong With Me" becomes the artist's fourth No. 1, replacing Darius Rucker's "Alright" atop the chart by just 200 audience impressions. Swift's song reigns with 37,359,300 impressions, while Rucker's track finishes with 37,359,100.

Since January 2005, the only tighter races happened on the June 25, 2005, chart (a tiebreaker between Nos. 1 and 2 with 34,945,900 impressions) and on the May 19, 2007, tally (another tiebreaker with 35,065,900).

STRAIT SHOT TO NO. 1

Country Music Hall of Fame honoree George Strait widens his lead with the most No. 1s on Top Country Albums since the list launched 45 years ago. Strait's 23rd No. 1, "Twang," sells 155,000 copies. The lead single, "Living for the Night," holds at No. 7 on Hot Country Songs, while the title track rises 58-51 (viewable on billboard.biz/charts) based on unsolicited play at 27 Nielsen BDS-monitored stations. With 15 chart-topping sets apiece, Merle Haggard and Willie Nelson are tied for second place on the list of acts with the most No. 1s on Top Country Albums.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS LEADING LADIES

Reba McEntire claims her 11th chart-topper on Top Country Albums, breaking a tie with Loretta Lynn for the most No. 1s by a solo female on that list (see Over the Counter, page 49). Top Country Albums debuted in the Jan. 11, 1964, issue, and Lynn's "Loretta Lynn Sings" bowed in the following issue (Jan. 18, 1964). She topped the chart 10 times between 1966 and 1976. McEntire's first No. 1 was "Whoever's in New England" in May 1986, and her most recent chart-topper was "Duets" in October 2007. Dolly Parton ranks third on the list with six No. 1 sets between 1977 and 1991. —Wade Jensen

Urban's 21st top 10 advances the singer from sixth place to a three-way tie with Brad Paisley and George Strait for fifth among acts with the most top 10s this decade.

Kenny Chesney tops that tally with 27, followed by Tim McGraw and Toby Keith (both with 25) and Rascal Flatts (22).

Ingram's second top 10 is his first since "Wherever You Are" topped the May 20, 2006, chart. His new album "Big Dreams & High Hopes" opens at No. 21 on Top Country Albums (9,000 copies).

BETWEEN THE BULLETS ROOKIES SHINE IN '09

Opening with 13,000 copies sold on Top Country Albums, the rookie trio Love and Theft's "World Wide Open" is the third top 10 start by a new act in 2009, following top 10 bows by Gloriana and Justin Moore. Gloriana's self-titled debut popped on at No. 2 (44,000 copies, Aug. 22), and "Justin Moore" bowed at No. 3 (34,000, Aug. 29). Moore also spent three weeks on the chart's lower end with an iTunes-exclusive EP in June and July. By this time last year, five new acts had opened inside the top 10.

In its 27th chart week, Love and Theft's lead single, "Runaway," is No. 18 on Hot Country Songs.

As his sophomore album, "The Man I Want to Be," takes the Hot Shot Debut nod at No. 6 on Top Country Albums (26,000 copies), fourth-season "Nashville Star" winner claims his first top 10 with the second track from that set.

The singer achieves his highest chart perch to date as he crosses the Airpower threshold with his third charted single, "Nail's best prior peak was with his last track, 'I'm About to Come Alive,' which stopped at No. 47 in May 2008.

STRING'S THE THING

Boulder, Colo.-based acoustic quartet Yonder Mountain String Band claims its third straight No. 1 start on Top Bluegrass Albums (No. 19 on Heatseekers) with the group's fifth studio album, titled "The Show" (2,000 copies). The four-some—Ben Kaufmann, Adam Ajala, Jeff Austin and Dave Johnston—previously bowed out the list with "Mountain Tracks: Volume 5" on the May 3, 2008, chart, and with "Yonder Mountain String Band" on the May 27, 2006, list. The new set, which was helmed by noted rock producer Tom Rothrock, is the group's seventh album to compete on the chart and its sixth to arrive inside the top five.

Aldean's fourth week at No. 1 is the most by any title in 18 months. No song had spent more than three weeks at the summit since Brad Paisley's "Letter to Me" logged a fourth week in the Feb. 23, 2008, issue.

Paisley's 22nd top 10 bumps his rank among the artists with the most top 10s this decade from a three-way tie for fifth to a fourth-place tie with Rascal Flatts. The trio achieved its 22nd top 10 with its current single, "Summer Nights" on the July 18 chart (6-9).

'NATURALLY' NO. 1

Bluegrass gospel group the Isaacs claim their first No. 1 on Top Bluegrass Albums, as "The Isaacs ... Naturally" opens with 2,000 copies sold (No. 32 on Top Christian Albums). The act previously rose as high as No. 14 on the bluegrass list when "Songs of Faith" bowed on the March 13, 2004, chart.

On Top Country Albums, Brooks & Dunn bow at No. 1 (see Hot Box, page 41) and Zac Brown Band debuts with an exclusive version of "The Foundation" at No. 30. Sold by Cracker Barrel Old Country Stores, the sales for "Foundation" are tallied separately from the original release (No. 3) due to incongruent content. —Wade Jessen

Up 7.9 million impressions (a 61% increase), the feisty track crosses the Airpower threshold with Greatest Gainer honors in its third chart week. Her third album, "Play On," arrives at retail Nov. 3.

'RIDE' RUNS TO TOP

Toby Keith's "American Ride" gains 1.1 million impressions and steps 2-1 on Hot Country Songs, his 16th chart-topper this decade. Kenny Chesney remains in second place with 14 No. 1s since January 2000. "Ride" is Keith's 19th trip to the summit during the Nielsen BDS era (since January 1990), which pushes him out of a tie for fifth place with Garth Brooks (18 No. 1s). During that period, George Strait leads with 26, followed by Alan Jackson (25), Tim McGraw (22) and Brooks & Dunn (20). Keith's new "American Ride" album is due Oct. 6.

Underwood's 10th top 10 is the most by any solo female in the current decade. Faith Hill and Martina McBride are tied for second place with nine top 10s apiece in the 2000s.

Chesney scores his 28th top 10 this decade, widening his lead as the artist with the most trips to that level in the '00s. The top 10 hasn't seen a core country artist with a non-country duet partner since Chesney's "Everybody Wants to Go to Heaven" with the Wallers reached No. 1 a year ago.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'MOUNTAIN' HIGH

LOVELESS

Traditional country/bluegrass artist Patty Loveless achieves her first No. 1 start on Top Bluegrass Albums, as "Mountain Soul II" debuts with more than 6,000 copies sold. Her third entry on the Bluegrass list follows a No. 2 start with "Bluegrass & White Snow: A Mountain Christmas" in December 2002 and a No. 6 debut with "Mountain Soul" in July 2002. The new set starts at No. 19 on Top Country Albums, where her most recent prior appearance was a No. 13 bow with "Sleepless Nights" in September 2008. High atop the country chart, Miranda Lambert debuts with her third album, "Revolution" (see Hot Box, page 37).

KEITH'S EIGHTH NO. 1

Toby Keith snares his eighth No. 1 on Top Country Albums with "American Ride," his 17th consecutive top 10 on that list. With more than 90,000 copies sold, "Ride" is also the Oklahoman's 10th top 10 on the Billboard 200, where it starts at No. 3. Each of Keith's eight No. 1s debuted at the summit on Top Country Albums, including seven studio sets and one hits package. Elsewhere on the country chart, Luke Bryan lands his second top five start and biggest sales week (58,000 sold) with his second album, "Doin' My Thing" (No. 2). His debut album, "I'll Stay Me," opened at No. 2 in September 2007.

URBAN MAKES 'WAY'

Keith Urban's "Only You Can Love Me This Way" tops Hot Country Songs with 36.1 million impressions—his 11th No. 1 on that list—placing him in the tie for ninth place with Clint Black among artists with the most chart-toppers during the Nielsen BDS era (which began in January 1990). In the current decade, Urban moves to sole ownership of fifth place, breaking a tie with Rascal Flatts for the most No. 1s since January 2000. The new No. 1 is Urban's first since he spent the first of two weeks at the summit with "Sweet Thing" on the March 14 chart.

BETWEEN THE BULLETS 'TOES' HITS TOP

Up 1.1 million audience impressions, Zac Brown Band claims its second Hot Country Songs No. 1 as "Toes" advances 2-1. With 36.4 million audience impressions in its 18th chart week, "Toes" follows the No. 2 peak of "Whatever It Is" on the July 11 chart. The band's debut single, "Chicken Fried," spent the last of four straight weeks at No. 1 on the Dec. 6, 2008, chart. No act has scored two chart-toppers out of its first three singles on Hot Country Songs since Dixie Chicks in 1998. Concurrently, Tim McGraw opens at No. 1 on Top Country Albums with "Southern Voice" (see Over the Counter, page 65).

McENTIRE

Reba McEntire claims her 57th career top 10 on Hot Country Songs as "Consider Me Gone" gains 2.3 million impressions and rises 13-10, extending her record for the most top 10 singles among solo female artists. Dolly Parton is the runner-up, with 55 top 10 songs. "Gone" is McEntire's first top 10 in almost five years on which she didn't share billing with another artist. That hasn't happened since "He Gets That From Me" hit No. 7 in February 2005. On Top Country Albums, Taylor Swift's "Fearless" returns to the summit for a 26th week (see Between the Bullets, page 42).

Improving by 5.1 million audience impressions (up 23%) in its 14th chart week, this song grabs Greatest Gainer honors with the highest increase inside the top 10 since Brad Paisley and Keith Urban's "Start a Band" added 6.9 million impressions on the Jan. 17 chart.

The third single and title track from Paisley's eighth studio album re-enters with 1.8 million impressions at 45 of the 126 stations monitored for the survey. Unsolicited album play first lifted the track onto the chart (No. 59) for one week in July.

CARRIE'S FAST RIDE

As her new album hits Billboard's retail charts (see Over the Counter, page 33), Carrie Underwood makes her fastest rise to the summit on Hot Country Songs with her eighth No. 1, the most by any solo female this decade. Up 3.4 million impressions in its 10th chart week, "Cowboy Casanova" also posts the fastest No. 1 run since June, when Brad Paisley's "Then" needed 10 weeks to reach the top. Among solo females in the Nielsen BDS era (since January 1990), Underwood is second to Faith Hill and Reba McEntire, who have nine apiece, while Shania Twain has seven, Jo Dee Messina six and Martina McBride five.

The lead single from the trio's upcoming second album draws $7.6 million impressions, marking the group's second No. 1 (see Hot Box, page 41) following "Run to You," which topped the July 25 chart. The new album arrives at retail Jan. 26.

With his third chart entry, and more than seven years after his chart debut, the Missouri native claims his first top 10 song. He debuted on the list with "Memphis" in 2002 (peaking at No. 52) and reached No. 47 with "I'm About to Come Alive" in 2008.

CMA's SPUR SPIKES

Overall country album sales are up 3% following the 43rd annual Country Music Assn. Awards (ABC-TV, Nov. 11), even considering the market-inflating arrival of Carrie Underwood's "Play On" last issue (318,000). CMAs-related gains account for 21 of the 31 bullets on Top Country Albums, led by Greatest Gainer Lady Antebellum's "I Run to You" (up 26,000 copies) and Jamey Johnson's "That Lonesome Song." Johnson's set takes the percentage-based Pacesetter trophy with a 286% spike. Similar gains dot Hot Digital Songs, where 15 of this issue's 40 bulleted titles are driven by the telecast.

GROWING 'NEED'

Lady Antebellum's "Need You Now" bullets in its second week atop Hot Country Songs with the fattest weekly audience sum so far this year and the chart's biggest in more than two years. Up 383,000 impressions, the single collects 38 million audience impressions during the tracking week, surpassing the year's prior best, which happened when labelmate Darius Rucker stacked 37.8 million impressions with "Alright" on the July 15 chart. Lady A registers the biggest weekly audience since Toby Keith's "Love Me If You Can" led the Oct. 20, 2007, chart with 38.1 million impressions. The trio's second album is due Jan. 26.

THE LADY IS LARGE

Up 1.3 million impressions in its third week atop Hot Country Songs, Lady Antebellum's "Need You Now" collects 39.3 million impressions during the tracking week, the largest weekly sum since Carrie Underwood's "Jesus, Take the Wheel" stacked 39.8 million on the Feb. 4, 2006, chart. Meanwhile, Tim McGraw claims his 44th top 10 on Hot Country Songs, as "Southern Voice" improves 1.9 million impressions (11-10), ranking him second among artists with the most top 10s in the current decade. That list is led by Kenny Chesney's 28 top 10s, while Toby Keith ranks third with 25.
